

THE CRC 2010 ANNUAL AUCTION

Once again, through the efforts of club member Rich Kuberski, we are privileged to hold our annual action in a park-like setting. In addition, we will also be continuing our tradition of combining the auction with a pot luck barbecue. That is, the club will provide the burgers, hot dogs, condiments, chips and soft drinks while the members bring side dishes to share with all.

So plan on not only on being part of the auction, by both buying and selling radio treasures, but also by bringing your family where they can enjoy the picnic and the surrounding park facilities.

AUCTION RULES

There is no cost to register as a buyer or seller.

There is a seller's commission that will be equal to $1 or 10% (which ever is greater) of the "hammer" price on each lot sold to any buyer - including the sellers who may elect to "buy back" their lots.

Sellers may optionally, at registration time only, set a secret minimum bid (reserve) on any lot.

No commission will be incurred on any lot that is not sold.

All seller commissions will be deducted from and before the payment to the seller, and these commissions will become the property of the Colorado Radio Collector's treasury.

Buyers can not take possession of any lot(s) until the total cost for all purchases are paid. Collection of buyers fees will commence at the conclusion of the sale of the last lot entered into the auction. A buyer's receipt is required for pickup of purchased lots from the lot/item display area.

Buyer fees will be collected before sellers are paid. Identification may be requested from those paying for their purchases by personal check.

* Sellers will be paid only by C.R.C. check and may, for a $1.00 surcharge, elect to be paid by mail.

* This auction is limited to radio and electronics related items as described above. The CRC reserves the right to reject items deemed inappropriate.

* Any item registered for sale by auction may not be sold outside of the auctioneer's control, and can not be removed from the sale once the auction commences.
